Writing Experience for Education Abroad Program course may be used to satisfy the GE writing experience if, and only if, they meet the specific requirements for a GE writing experience course. These requirements can be found via the Writing Experience Courses link on the http://ge.ucdavis.edu web page. A 1 unit course requires a minimum of 5 pages of writing; a course of 2 or more units requires a minimum of 10 pages, possibly in a series of staged tasks or shorter assignments. Approval may be sought for shorter assignments that total fewer than 5 or 10 pages when they are appropriate and clearly justified. Students must be given feedback designed to promote improvement in writing in the course. As some overseas instructors do not write comments or return papers, you should make a copy of your paper prior to submission and ask the instructor to complete the statement below. NOTE: GE courses must be graded, not P/NP

For students intending to request Writing Experience General Education credit upon return to UC Davis:
Prior to returning to Davis, please fill out the information below and ask your instructor at your host university to sign the following statement if applicable:
As part of the requirements for the following course, _____the following student, _____has been assigned a paper(s) of at least 5 pages in length (typed, double-spaced), written in English. The writing was evaluated for content, logical coherence, use of language and grammar, and feedback was provided.
